Distance Learning Expectations for Jasper Middle School

- Assignments will be posted in the Learning Management System, itslearning.
- Students should login to the Google account and access all online programs via Clever.com.
- Weekly lessons will be posted by 8:00 AM on Monday morning. All work will be due the following Monday by 8:00 AM (unless previously assigned with a further due date).
- Live instruction will be held via Google Meets. The link to join will be posted in itslearning.
- Two days per week ELA teachers will provide live instruction on new content via Google Meets. On the ELA focus days, students will have independent practice for other content areas.
- Two days per week Math teachers will provide live instruction on new content via Google Meets. On the Math focus days, students will have independent practice for other content areas.
- Two days per week Science & Social Studies teachers will provide live instruction on new content via Google Meets. On the Science & Social Studies focus days, students will have independent practice for other content areas.
- One day a week Connection teachers will provide live instruction.
- Grades will count. Work turned in after the due date may not receive full credit. Teacher discretion will apply.
- Teachers will be available from 8:30-3:30 unless providing live instruction for questions. Later appointments may be scheduled as needed with the approval of the teacher.
- Teachers will conduct small group/individual instruction via live meets.
- Students should actively participate in the live Google Meets.
- Teachers will contact parents as needed to ensure student achievement..
- Counselors will be available to virtually meet with parents and students as needed.